Rishi Rich is BACK with a Hip Hop, Reggaeton, R&B, Bhangra mashup which is set to be the sound of the summer featuring the original crew of Jay Sean and Juggy D. Taken from the forthcoming album "The Project", Push It Up (Aja Kurieh) is released on Monday 3rd July.

Rishi Rich is the UK Asian super producer who shot to fame through his innovative fusion of Asian and urban sounds and releases his eagerly anticipated debut album 'The Project' through 2Point9 Records on July 17th.

Rishi is already one of the leading lights on the UK music scene and is well established through his previous work producing and remixing the likes of Mary J Blige, Britney Spears, Misteeq and Craig David. He has created a unique sound that brings together traditional Indian sounds and hip-hop infused beats. These sounds have, over the past few years, influenced many renowned artists including Missy Elliot, Timbaland and Dr Dre.

The new video which was shot in Puerto Rico is already being played on MTV Base, Kiss TV, The Box, Channel U, Zee TV & B4U and the track is on all good radio stations.
